*Ground Beef is fully cooked when internal temperature reaches 160°.

1 PREP & MAKE TANGY MAYO

- Wash and dry produce.
- Quarter lemon.
- In a small bowl, combine ketchup, half the mayonnaise, half the sour cream, half the mustard, ¼ tsp sugar, ¼ tsp Fry Seasoning (you'll use the rest in the next step), juice from one lemon wedge, ½ tsp salt, and pepper. (For 4 servings, use ½ tsp sugar, ½ tsp Fry Seasoning, juice from two lemon wedges, and 1 tsp salt.)

3 MAKE SLAW

- Meanwhile, in a second medium bowl, combine coleslaw mix, remaining mayonnaise, remaining sour cream, ¼ tsp sugar (½ tsp for 4 servings), juice from two lemon wedges (four lemon wedges for 4), a pinch of salt, and pepper.
- Halve buns; toast until golden.

2 COOK PATTIES

- In a medium bowl, gently combine beef, remaining mustard, remaining Fry Seasoning, a big pinch of salt, and pepper. Form beef into two equal-size balls (four balls for 4 servings).
- Heat a drizzle of oil in a large pan over medium-high heat. Once pan is hot, add beef; firmly flatten each ball with a lightly oiled spatula to create patties, each slightly wider than a burger bun. Cook until browned and cooked through, 3-5 minutes per side. (Don't worry if the patties aren't perfectly round—those irregular edges will turn crispy.)

4 FINISH & SERVE

- Spread a thin layer of tangy mayo on bottom buns. Fill buns with patties, crispy fried onions, and as much remaining tangy mayo as you like.
- Divide burgers and slaw between plates. (You can also top burgers with a bit of slaw for an authentic deli special.) Serve.
